Yoga in the Garden

Yoga fuels and restores the body, mind and soul. Private yoga lessons available all the year long are $70 per person or $90 for two persons with advance notice. The yoga instructors welcome all levels.

In our Chef's Garden

The Allison resident gardener has been busy carefully selecting and planting vegetables in the one-acre garden. These vegetables will be incorporated into JORY's new menus. Guests can look forward to: Thumbelina carrots, Padron peppers, imperial artichokes, cylindra beets and 50 varieties of tomatoes, etc.

Pinotini Cocktail

Another excuse to spend time in JORY Bar or the Living Room, mixologist Ken Bolick has created the Pinotini, a nod to the area's well-known pinot noir grape. Made with Oregon pinot noir, Lillet blanc, Ciroc vodka and a touch of fresh lemon juice and agave syrup, the Pinotini is paired perfectly with the Friday & Saturday evening jazz performances. Visit the Allison website calendar to note featured artists.

The Allison, thoughtfully placed on 35 hillside acres, is independently owned and operated, has 85 deluxe guest accommodations, inclusive of eight suites and guest rooms span four levels. All accommodations have fireplaces, window seats, a balcony or terrace and spa-like bathrooms.

Room rates are reasonable by California luxury resort standards, while delivering a similar quality guest experience: $305 - $1,100 based on single/double occupancy.
