we should tell you a few things. your first smile should happen - about now. and - things feel different here. they are. neither stress nor worry can survive in this environment. breathe. relax. let go. we've got you.

our philosophy.

The Allison Spa, like the Inn, is a philosophy. A series of philosophies, actually - organic, evolving, emerging as friendly, sometimes serious, sometimes playful guides for our practices and promises. You'll notice that our treatments and therapies are no less effective because they are lavish. No less scientific because they are natural. They are designed to rejuvenate and indulge you - the whole of you. Your senses. Smell, touch, feel.

Our spa menu captures the essence of the Pacific Northwest, presenting treatments and products that use blends of natural elements inspired by Oregon's surroundings.

EARTHY AND HERBAL: Biodynamic blends of chamomile, peppermint and rosehip amongst other organic northwest agricultural elements, nourish the body and optimize the living energy in our skin.

FRUITS AND FLORAL: Lavender, berries, apples, roses and pears are just some of the aromatic and delicious ingredients used in our age-old recipes, providing the highest concentrations of vitamins and potent healing properties.

PINOT THERAPY: Pinot-inspired botanical and biological therapy produced by wine and grape seed extracts will infuse your skin with antioxidants.

WATER THERAPY: From hydro-tubs to eucalyptus steam rooms, and whirlpools to vichy showers, a fluid escape into water therapy will ease your muscles, enhance your skin and clear your mind.
